There's something to Q. Always was. Not a lot of people know that there were 2 posters on the 8 boards who were posting live from inside the White House at one point. They were taking original pics of the x-mas decorations that had been updated that year.

Remember?
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8Oo6ZTPX_vo
That was just 11 months ago.
11 months ago things were very different

Since then
>300k dead mutts
>Hermain Cain and Trump's brother dead
>US Economy Tanks and on the verge of implosion as million of Americans get evicted from their homes
>Constant Riots and the US on the verge of a genuine civil war
>Trump loses election in a manner that exposes the country as a banana republic, US on the verge of a constitutional crisis
>US loses face in the world as its own allies turn its back on it in the UN
>China overtakes US as worlds largest economy
>Sunburst Hack compromises the US to an extent that is still not fully unraveled in the largest cyberattack in history
>CIA director Gina Haspel still (((missing)))
>US infrastructure crumbling at an unprecedented rate

Remember that it was Iran that brought Russia into Syria and helped Russia regain its geopolitical foothold in the middle east and subsequently the world. Remember that it was Russia and China that gave Iran its military and economic protection against the rabid subhuman hordes that have been trying to strangle the country economically and would've bombed it 20 times over if they could.
Remember that despite all their efforts, ZOG and the Mutt global order is in visible decline as it's throwing its final temper tantrums while taking its last breaths while Russia, China, and Iran are on the rise militarily, socially, and economically without any further leverages for mutts to pull.

Dark Days Ahead Indeed
